

OH WONDROUS BEING

Oh wondrous being within my now,
You fill my senses wholly -
I've sought, encountered many a man,
Yet you fulfil me solely -
I'll hold your hand and walk this path
With little expectation -
Just knowing that I love thee true
Is my Soul-consolation!

The Universe long-since decreed
Our Souls should re-unite now -
This union is our Soul-reward,
This love is our delight now -
We've both known pain along the way,
Our Spirits have been scar-torn -
Yet we proclaim this blessed day!
Two Souls as one are re-born!
